AMBASSADOR Program

Pabianice, 12.04.2022

Invitation letter

We would like to invite You to take part in the our AMBASSADOR Program. Thanks to it You will be able to gain many more benefits than in the conditions of standard cooperation with us. Because we care about simple terms of cooperation. Description can be found in the 3 sections below.

Kind Regards

Wojciech Kołakowski
Board Member Clean Mode Sp. z o. o.

For whom is this program?

The Programme is open to individuals or companies that distribute chemicals and/or cleaning equipment and trainers who train cleaning staff.

What are the benefits of participating in the program?

There are many benefits.

- The first is free access to training offered on the e-learning.cleanmode.pl platform. All this so that you have a chance to improve and build an image of an expert, supported by the increasingly recognizable brand Clean Mode.¹
- Special prices for individual trainings with high discounts of up to 50%. All this so that you can earn money by selling our training.²
- Another benefit is the support of Clean Mode specialists in the process of implementing training in the client's line of employees.
- Your bio on the website www.cleanmode.pl
- And many others....

What do we expect from the Ambassador?

Under the program, we expect:

- Active offering from our offer.
- Cooperation and its open promotion on your business profiles in social media, such as LinkedIn.
- Taking care of the expert's own image.
- A worthy representation of the Clean Mode mission.

¹ During the period of cooperation, agreed and approved by Clean Mode, Ambassador's employees will receive free access to training available on the e-learning.cleanmode.pl platform

² The cooperation takes place on a B2B basis based on the Agreement for cooperation between the Clean Mode Company and the Ambassador. The Ambassador distributes Clean Mode products at the price suggested by Clean Mode after purchasing them from Clean Mode at a promotional price specified in the program's current price list.
